Juliana Hatfield Juliana Hatfield is an American singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist best known as a member of the band Megafaun. Early life Hatfield was born on October 18, 1966, in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She began playing the guitar when she was 9 years old. She has stated that she was a big fan of "surrealistic rock 'n' roll" artists from the 1970s such as The Doors and Led Zeppelin, and she also cites the Beatles, Elvis, and Bob Dylan as influences.

Career Megafaun In 1994, Hatfield met drummer Dave Bryne while the two were in school in Ann Arbor, Michigan. They initially played together in local bands but decided to begin a band in 1995. They played their first show in 1996 at the A&R Bar, and initially performed only in the Ann Arbor area. The band began to play gigs outside of the Ann Arbor area, including the first show at The Crocodile Cafe in Madison, Wisconsin. Bryne left the band in early 1997, and was replaced by Scott Kelly. In 1999, Bryne was replaced by Mike Musburger. In early 2005, Megafaun recorded an album's worth of live material at Rancho de la Luna in Yreka, California. The live album was released in July 2005 under the name Live at Rancho de la Luna. Hatfield and Bryne both quit the band in late 2005, with both deciding to pursue a solo career. Bryne released his first solo album, 2/0, in 2006. In early 2007, Megafaun began performing together once again. Bryne and Kelly (along with a rotating cast of musicians) began touring with a new live show, Megafaun Reborn, and the band recorded their next album, Happy Hollow, at Bear Creek Studios in Decatur, Georgia, in August 2007. The album was released in September 2008
